Planning officer's comments: This is a reserved matters application, where only matters related to appearance, landscaping and scale are for consideration. The principle of development here is already consented under the outline consent for the construction of 8 houses with details of access and layout also consented.

Therefore, that doesn't leave a lot to worry about on this one as it goes. The development gives a good mix of both large and smaller homes so as to ensure provision for wider community so scale is fine. Appearance would appear to follow local vernacular but feel free to offer comment in this regard, bearing in mind budgetary constraints mean any requests need to be reasonable and commensurate to the scale and nature of the site. Access details have been included on the file to discharge the condition on the OA at same time as secure the RM, hence the large number of access plans.
